

Citizenship in an era of fragility: identities, inequalities and imaginations Sociology Symposium

Newcastle University, 15th March 2017, Devonshire Building

Programme

9.30	Registration	Foyer
10.00	Welcome Janice McLaughlin, Head of Sociology Professor Daniel Zizzo, Dean of Research and Innovation, Faculty of Humanities and Social Science	Room G21/22
10.10- 11.40	Roundtable: The power of stigma in reproducing inequalities Keynote – Michele Lamont (Harvard University): 'Getting respect: Responding to stigma and discrimination in the United States, Brazil and Israel' Chair: Gethin Rees Participants: Elaine Campbell, Adel Pasztor, Silvia Pasquetti, John Vail
11.40- 12.00	Coffee	Foyer
12.00- 13.00	Doctoral Plenary James Cummings The scene/'quanzi': Negotiating belonging in the everyday lives of gay men in Hainan Matthew Hanchard Digital citizens and their use of maps: How digital technologies increase and restrict individual agency in everyday life Diana Kopbayeva Imagining the 'eternal nation': exploration of discourses of the nation in Kazakhstan Chair: Elaine Campbell	Room G21/22

13.00-13.50	LUNCH	Foyer
13.50-15.20	Roundtable: Walking, listening: history, hope and urban spaces Keynote – Les Back (Goldsmiths): 'Marchers and steppers: Memory, city life and walking' Chair: Cathrine Degnen Participants: Dariusz Gafijczuk, Lisa Garforth, Anselma Gallinat, Robert Hollands, Bridgette Wessels	Room G21/22
15.20-15.40	Coffee	Foyer
15.40-17.10	Roundtable: The good life and the good citizen Keynote – Rosemarie Garland-Thomson (Emory University): 'The Case for Conserving Disability' Chair: Diane Richardson Participants: Jackie Leach Scully, Janice McLaughlin	Room G21/22
17.10	Close
17.30	Reception, School of Geography, Politics and Sociology, 5 th Floor Claremont Tower.

